

Sentencing Symposium

April 14, 2005

Rutgers University - Newark

Agenda

1: 00 pm-2:00 pm . . . Keynote Address and Question/Answer

Sense and Sentencing: Seeking Justice in a Time of Change

Marc Mauer – Assistant Director, The Sentencing Project, Washington, D.C.

3:00 pm- 4:00 pm . . . Topical Panels (CHOOSE ONE TO ATTEND)

PANEL OPTION #1: “The Costs and Benefits of Incarceration”

Panelists: Neil Buchanan – Rutgers University School of Law

Vanja Stenius – Rutgers University School of Criminal Justice

Discussant: Senator Bernard F. Kenny, Jr. – Majority Leader, NJ Senate

PANEL OPTION #2: “From Apendi to Blakely to Natale: What Impact Will the New Sentencing Cases Have?”

Panelists: Ben Barlyn – Assistant Attorney General and Executive Director, New Jersey Commission to Review Criminal Sentencing

Yvonne Segars – N.J. Public Defender

Discussant: Candace McCoy – Rutgers University School of Criminal Justice

4:45 pm . . . . . Reception

The Sentencing Symposium is co-sponsored by the School of Criminal Justice and the School of Law, Rutgers University - Newark, with support from the Newhouse Fund.

Please complete the form below and mail to:
Rutgers School of Criminal Justice
123 Washington Street, Room 568
Newark, NJ 07102

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

PHONE: _____

I will be attending: (please check one)

- PANEL #1: “The Costs and Benefits of Incarceration”
- PANEL #2: “From Apendi to Blakely to Natale: What Impact Will the New Sentencing Cases Have?”
- I will be also be attending the reception.

Admission is Free! – Please Register Today.

Have a question? email luwanda@newark.rutgers.edu